NORTH FRYEBURG

Mrs. Alice Webb

Our community was deeply grieved on Friday morning, February 12th, when Mrs. Alice Webb passed over the Purple Hills, beyond the Great Glow of Life.

Day and the spirit took its flight. Mrs. Webb has been sick with pneumonia for two weeks. Every care and attention was given her, with the aid of a trained nurse, but of no avail. She was a member of the Ladies' Social Circle and always when able, attended the Universalist Church.

Funeral services were held at her late home on Sunday afternoon, February 14, and were conducted by Rev. Clifford Cross, our pastor. The floral pieces were many and beautiful, attesting to the high esteem in which she was held. She was laid to rest in the River Bank cemetery of this place.

NORTH LOVELL

Mrs. Annie Graves and son, Aubrey Graves, of North Fryeburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. Percy McKee, recently.

Gordon Bemis of North Fryeburg was in North Lovell, Thursday.

SOUTH WATERFORD

Ella A. Hamlin

The death of Ella Amelia Hamlin, widow of Charles Scripture Hamlin, occurred at her late home in Waterford, February 16, after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Mrs. Hamlin was born in Waterford, May 6, 1857, a daughter of the late Oliver and Frances Barker Kneeland who soon after moved to Kneeland.

Mrs. Hamlin was a woman of fine qualities; ever ready to render a service when health would permit and always with a kindly thought and word for everyone.

Mrs. Hamlin was a member of the Waterford Congregational Church, Kneeland Chapter O. E. S., Oxford Pomona Grange and Bear Mt. Grange of which order she had fifty years of continuous membership, giving her the honor of being a Golden Shield member.

In May, 1879, she married Charles S. Hamlin, their fifth wedding anniversary being celebrated May 17, 1928. Mr. Hamlin passing to the Higher Life the following day.

Mrs. Hamlin is survived by one son, Carl S. Hamlin, with whom she lived at the home farm; three daughters, Anna, Helen and Mary E. Gardner; a son, Dana Calvin, dying at the age of seven years, also an infant son. There are fifteen grandchildren to whom she was deeply devoted.

At the home on February 18, at 2 o'clock, where surrounded by beautiful flowers, of which she was fond, unspoken words of love and affection, the funeral services were held, attended by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Townsend, assisted in prayer by Rev. R. A. Brandon. Interment in the family lot at Elm Vale cemetery.

SWEDEN—BLACK MOUNTAIN

Young men from Portland have been spending the week end at W. E. Berry's and enjoying the ice fishing.

Charles Berry spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Berry.

Mrs. Freeman Dyer and children spent the day with Mrs. Christine Tower one day this week.

Phyllis Rogers, who has been sick, is out once more.

Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tower were awakened by the smell of smoke. After a thorough search of the house a wooden box of ashes in the cellar was found merrily blazing.

After throwing on several pails of water the blaze was extinguished. A cat sleeping in the cellar tried hard to give the alarm by crying loudly.

One of the worst wind blows for years struck the hill, Saturday night. Sunday morning found Ray Kneeland and crew around shoveling out the drifts.

Guy Tower hauled lumber to West Lovell for Burton Stearns one day this week.

"Kolo" Dusting Materials

The New Dusts you can see Stick give more permanent protection from each application

These "Kolo" Dusting Materials have sticking properties not found in any other dusting material. They may be applied with equal effect to either wet or dry foliage, and after once "set," will stick for weeks through rain and wind. This dust is a visible sticker. You can see it plainly without lens or microscope. Experiments demonstrate that this sticker dust retains a larger percentage of sulphur on the leaf surface for a longer period than is the case of "Lime Sulphur" Solution, or most any other liquid spraying material.
